

DEPARTMENT OF NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME (N.S.S) , BISWABANGLA BISWABIDYALAY

Introduction: The National Service Scheme (N.S.S) in India was launched on September 24, 1969. It was initiated in 37 universities with the aim of developing student's personalities and character through communities. The scheme is a public service program conducted by Ministry of Youth Affairs and sports, Government of India. N.S.S developed the personality and character of student youth through voluntary community service, with the Moto "Not Me, But You" N.S.S emphasizes "Education through Service" and encourages students to understand their communities and actively participate in problem solving.

Moto: The N.S.S Moto, "Not Me But You" reflects its core philosophy of prioritizing community needs over individual interests.

Objectives: N.S.S aims to develop a sense of social and civic responsibility, understand the community, identify needs and problems and find solutions.

N.S.S symbol: The N.S.S symbol is best of the Rath wheel of the Konarak Sun Temple, signifying the cycle of creation, preservation and release, symbolizing continues striving for social transformation.

Recognition: The program of N.S.S recognized by Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Government of India and also recognized by government of west Bengal.

Activities: N.S.S volunteers engage in various activities like regular activities (Blood donation, Tree plantation, Cleanliness etc.) and special camping programs (Residential camps focused on environmental enrichment, health and disaster management).
