Orientation Programme and Closing Ceremony

The ninth and final day marked the conclusion of the nine-day observance of the Har Ghar Tiranga Campaign at Biswa Bangla Biswabidyalay.

The day commenced with the Orientation Programme for the newly admitted students of the first semester. The programme began with the singing of Vande Mataram, followed by the traditional lighting of the ceremonial lamp.

The first half of the programme was dedicated to welcoming and orienting the newly admitted students and familiarizing them with the University and its academic environment.

Closing Ceremony of the Har Ghar Tiranga Campaign

The second half of the programme was dedicated to the closing ceremony of the nine-day Har Ghar Tiranga observance.

The Honourable Vice-Chancellor Prof. Abu Taleb Khan addressed the gathering and reflected upon the significance of the campaign and the importance of cultivating patriotism, national unity and respect for the National Flag among the students and members of the University community.

A prize distribution ceremony was subsequently organized, during which prizes were presented to the winners and participants of the various competitions conducted during the campaign.

The Honourable Vice-Chancellor thereafter delivered the closing remarks and expressed his appreciation to all those who contributed to the successful organization of the nine-day programme.

Dr. Prabhakar Thapa delivered the Vote of Thanks, expressing gratitude to the Honourable Vice-Chancellor, University authorities, faculty members, officers, non-teaching staff, students, security personnel, invited speakers and all other participants whose collective efforts contributed to the success of the campaign.

The programme was conducted by Dr. Supriya Ghosh and officially concluded with the singing of the National Anthem.

The "Har Ghar Tiranga" Campaign 2026 at Biswa Bangla Biswabidyalay was observed through a comprehensive series of academic, cultural, creative, sports and community-oriented activities from 09 August to 17 August 2026.

The campaign successfully brought together students, faculty members, officers, non-teaching staff, security personnel and former members of the University community in a shared celebration of India's national identity and the values of patriotism, unity and civic responsibility.

Adil

The combination of essay writing, seminars, quiz competitions, painting and rangoli, Tiranga rally, special lectures, campus decoration, Independence Day celebrations, cultural performances, sports activities and digital participation provided members of the University community with multiple opportunities to engage with the ideals represented by the National Flag.

The enthusiastic participation of the University community throughout the nine days demonstrated a strong sense of patriotism and collective responsibility. The campaign also provided an important platform for educating and sensitizing the younger generation about India's freedom struggle, the sacrifices of the freedom fighters, the Constitution, national unity and the significance of the National Flag.

The successful completion of the nine-day observance was made possible through the guidance and leadership of the Honourable Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Abu Taleb Khan, and the active cooperation of the University authorities, departments, faculty members, officers, non-teaching staff, students and security personnel.

The Har Ghar Tiranga Campaign 2026 therefore served not merely as a commemorative programme but as a meaningful institutional initiative to strengthen the values of patriotism, national unity, respect for the National Flag and responsible citizenship among the University community.
